

Linda Hooks Bio

Linda is a graduate of Virginia Tech, and she also completed the University of North Carolina's "Advanced Topics in Treasury Management" at Kenan-Flagler Business School. She was active in the Hampton Roads Association for Financial Professionals and serves on several charity boards.

A longtime banker, Linda devoted most of her career to Treasury Sales and Management, consulting with companies of all sizes, large corporations, and government agencies. Prior to her recent retirement, Linda managed the Treasury Sales Team at TowneBank.

Linda believes in a team approach to relationship management, and she is passionate about educating both bankers and companies as to the intricacies of Treasury and Working Capital Management.

Linda resides in Virginia Beach and loves to stay active and travel.